Preface

Greetings to all my beloved readers. I want to introduce myself formally. I am Associate Professor Worakamol Wisetsri, and I have been appointed as the new editor of RAJAPARK INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL. I am delighted to be responsible for publishing this academic work. In this era of many changes, many things are happening in society. All readers who stop by to read RAJAPARK INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL will gain some knowledge.

We are happy to launch “Rajapark International Journal Volume 1, Issue 2, May-August 2024.” Our initial idea for launching the Journal came from the fact that we wanted to receive the work of researchers from world-class academic institutions who demonstrate a strong desire to publish documentary and theoretical research in this international journal.

For this issue's featured article, we would like to give credit to “Understanding the Integrated Industrial Development in Rural Districts: A Qualitative Insight in China” which is very interesting and worth studying. Other articles are also interesting.

We will be very glad to receive your high-quality technical contributions as soon as possible. All submissions should be made electronically to one of the editors-in-chief or through the journal's web page.

Best Regards
Worakamol Wisetsri
